Preface

IAHS 89 - World Congress on Housing - was held in Porto, Portugal, between October 23 and 27, 1989.

IAHS 89 was intended to continue IAHS Conference Series, which started with the First Symposium in Missouri, USA, 1970 and continued in Missouri (1972), Ohio (1973), Miami (1974), Quebec (1974), Atlanta (1976), Cairo (1976), Madras (1977), Bangkok (1977), Istanbul (1977), Salvador (1978), Dhahran (1978), Miami (1979, 1980), Viena (1981), Miami (1983), Valparaíso (1985), Miami (1986), Berlin (1987), Singapore (1987), Bangalore (1988).

IAHS ' goals are: generate interest to improve every phase of housing technology and production; emphasize and foster interdisciplinary nature of housing problems; use integrated systems approach in the decision process associated with every phase of planning and construction; incorporate all possible scientific knowledge and methods in the housing industry; organize and sponsor meetings, courses and conferences concerned with housing problems; assemble, compile, publish and disseminate information of housing problems; cooperate with academic and research institutions, government and private organizations to sponsor and finance research related to housing; to search for and support innovations which have the potential to help solve the housing problems.

IAHS Oporto Congress main theme has been "Better Housing Through Innovative Technologies and Financing" particularly through new urban planning, new designs, new materials, new technological and management developments and innovative financing.

The organisers would like to thank for the help received from all their colleagues, sponsors, staff and, of course, from all the participants, who, in fact, are the ultimate reason for holding any conference.
